

I believe New Jersey's Do Not Call regulation should be the standard for the nation. It should NEVER be weakened. I consider these unwanted, unsolicited calls from strangers to be an invasion of the privacy of my home. There are ample other media for publicity for companies to get their message out. I work with senior citizens and they are particularly vulnerable to these invasive calls. Thank you for this opportunity to express my opinion.